

Fiesta Mexicana Featured in Torrance Youth Band Concert

A Mexican Folk Song Symphony, entitled "La Fiesta Mexicana," will be the featured work on the Torrance Area Youth Band's "Thirteenth Anniversary" Concert to be given in the Torrance Civic Auditorium tomorrow at 8 p.m. The composition, 23 minutes in length, was written by Dr. H. Owen Reed, chairman of theory and composition at Michigan State University.

"La Fiesta Mexicana" is written in three movements. The first is the Prelude and Aztec Dance, followed by the Mass and the third movement entitled Carnival. The music features harp and percussion throughout. Special percussion instruments and players had to be recruited to perform the music. Special percussion instruments used in the music include harp, two sets of tubular bells (chimes), four tympani, marimba, temple blocks, two tunable tom-toms, snare drum, bass drum, castanets, maracas, cymbals, gong and tambourine.

Other numbers listed on the program include "Proud Heritage number was transcribed from the Orchestra score by James Van Dyck, conductor of the Youth Band.

Student soloists on the program include Ronnie Van Dyck, clarinetist, Peter Bailey, violinist and Patricia Patterson, pianist. Charles Brady, trumpeter, will be guest artist and Jim Davidson will be guest conductor. This is the fourth and last concert of the current series of Artist Concerts co-sponsored by the Youth Band and the Torrance Junior Woman's Club. The Torrance Juniors last week won first place in state competition with other clubs through their outstanding service in sponsoring music and music scholarships for youth in conjunction with the local Artist Series.

Mothers of the Youth Band members will hold a reception for the Juniors immediately following the concert.

Chorus Fetes Nativity Mothers Club Members

A chorus of seventh and eighth grade boys and girls under the direction of Sisters Saint Michael and John Paul highlighted the May meeting of the Nativity Mothers Club.

The chorus presented West Indian folk songs accompanied by Joseph Walker and James Gross on rhythmic bongos and traditional American folk songs accompanied by John Erickson on the guitar.

A solo was given by Richard Hernandez, costumed as Dr. Ironside. Vicki Podgurski furnished the piano accompaniment for the numbers.

Mrs. James McClain accepted chairmanship of the club's bi-monthly paper drives.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Peter O'Brien, the membership attended a Mother and Daughter Tea and Spring Fashion Show April 4 at the Broadway Terrace Room. In making her report, Mrs. O'Brien gave special credit to all the committee of first and second grade mothers. Refreshments were served by this group at the close of the meeting.

Two Seniors Win Southwest Awards

Two seniors from Torrance High Schools today received outstanding student awards in the program sponsored state-wide by the California Savings and Loan League and locally by Southwest Savings and Loan Association and Marina Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Winners of the cash awards were John Brentwood, Torrance High School and Sonja Pesola, North High School.
